THE ALIENS have invaded earth.
Your mission, to halt their advance.
And ultimately destroy their alien stronghold,
'Zone Zero'.

Under your control are five Vortons. And the 'Lasertron' - the world's most advanced weapon system, which must be taken to Zone Zero to complete your mission.

So prepare yourself for battle . . . Prepare yourself for the Highway Encounter.

Highway Encounter was, to my mind, one of the great Spectrum games of last year. Few other games mixed technical ingenuity with original thought and pure addictiveness in quite so perfect a blend. I remember still the opening moments of the game, when the intrepid troupe of vortons set off one behind the other on their journey down the alien highway, a journey from which they were unlikely to return - if the flames didn't get them the dreaded ergonomically designed eyes would surely end their little metallic lives. It brings a lump to the throat, I can tell you. POPULAR COMPUTING WEEKLY
